

Centennial Observance Set At Congregational Church

A Centennial Celebration will be sponsored Sunday, Nov. 2 by members and friends of Fruitport Congregational Church, United Church of Christ.

The event will begin at 9:30 a.m. when Dr. Duane N. Vore, minister of the West Michigan Conference, will conduct the service.

A coffee hour will be held, beginning at 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. when parishioners will meet with old friends and, hopefully, three former pastors. Invited were the Reverends Moorehouse, Lewis, Mills and Mitchell.

That evening, beginning at 6 p.m., their special guests will be on hand to greet everyone in the fellowship hall. This opportunity is provided especially for those who missed them during the morning activities.

The young and not-so-old will meet in the sanctuary at 7 p.m. for an old-fashioned "song fest".

Letters or telegrams received from those who could not attend will be read after the "song fest".

Refreshments and a social hour will conclude the evening, Sunday.

A Harvest Supper, an annual event of the church, will be an extra special affair in observance of the Centennial Celebration. It is scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 6 with the supper being planned by the Women's Fellowship.

After the supper a short but meaningful program will be held in the Sanctuary. It will portray the changes in the church over the last one hundred years.

CHURCH CENTENNIAL PLANNERS Fruitport Congregational Church, United Church of Christ members will observe the Centennial of the founding of their church in Fruitport, Sunday, Nov. 2. Members of the Centennial Planning

Committee are, back row, left to right: Mrs. and Mr. Gerald Colburn, Mrs. Millard Andrews, Mr. William Cox, Mrs. Joseph Kleeves, and Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Colburn. Seated, center, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bush and front, Mr. Don Dennis.